About the Scholarship:

Education is needed for a productive society. A productive society is crucial for all-around economic growth. We need people to continue to learn and research in order to constantly stay innovative. The countries with higher education rates also tend to be in better economic situations. With a more educated population, more employment opportunities are opened. Our population if continues to increase, and in turn, a strong and efficient workforce of educated people will provide us with the services we need for everyday life. But so many children and youth drop their educational mission in between due to the financial constraints. In view of the same the AIHSD family is determined to do the positive steps and take this responsibility for making skill oriented and productive society from its inception.

Thus, the sole objective of the scholarship program is to provide a support base for the economically poor and meritorious students of our country in the era of New Education Policy of Indian Government with a motto of Education for All in the state of Uttar Pradesh.
